It is up to each competitor to make sure that their exhibit complies with the class requirements. Persons accepting entries cannot comment on exhibits in that respect.

Judges decide if exhibits are disqualified for any reason and their decision is final. No entry fees will be refunded for disqualified entries.

The success of the show depends on the number of exhibits on the day and we invite you to participate in the various classes. Also note that we have some qualifiers for All Ireland's in Tullamore, Bonniconlon and Castleblaney. The organisers of this area would like to thank all those people in the community who have helped and supported us during the past 12 months and who help on the day of the show.

For Enquiries on Baking, Home Produce, Arts & Crafts - Barbara Creaven 086 6007613, Esther Greaney 087 7478603.

Irish Shows Association Guidelines

For full details and rules on Irish Shows Association please refer to the Irish Shows Association Guidebook or our website www.irishshows.org. All Shows are governed by these and qualifiers are ran in accordance with the rules & regulations of the Irish Shows Association. The Irish Shows Association would advise animal owners who have their animals insured to have the insurance extended to cover them while showing animals at Shows. We believe the cost is minimal depending on your insurer. The reason being that if your animal were to lash out and injure someone or damage property and it was established that it was your animal was out of your control at the time, you may be held responsible or partly responsible and could have to pay all or part of any settlement reached.

Discipline

The Irish Shows Association expects and will insist upon appropriate behaviour from all exhibitors and others participating in any of the activities at our Member Shows and will not tolerate inappropriate behaviour. Inappropriate behaviour includes but is not limited to the following: Profanity, coarse or vulgar language or gestures towards judges or Show officials; harassment or bullying, including using words or actions that threaten, intimidate or undermine judges or other officials before, during or following member show activities; failure to follow rules and/or obey instructions; abusing any animal.

Disciplinary Procedures – Complaints of misconduct against an exhibitor or other participant at a member show shall be investigated and adjudicated upon by a subcommittee appointed by the Irish Shows Association. The Disciplinary Committee shall seek to ensure the existence of consistent, effective, fair and transparent complaint procedures and shall act in accordance with natural and constitutional justice. For details refer to the Irish Shows Association yearbook or visit our web site on www.irishshows.org.

Horse Transport

Irish Law(EU Directive) - Under Irish Law, all horses moving from one location to another must be accompanied by their passports. It is in your own interest to ensure that this is the case. Failure to do so is an offence under Irish Law and is liable on summary conviction to result in a fine of up to €3,000. All passports must be registered with the name of the current owner.

The Corrandulla Show is proud to host the Annual Annaghdown/Corrandulla Senior Citizens Party. The Show also supports the local community in its endeavours.
